Steps to Success

Determine what you want to be known for!

FOR Your personal brand is more than a reflection of who you are today; it's a roadmap of where you want to go. In addition to understanding your existing skills and competencies, TYI Academy experts facilitates a deep dive into your personality preferences based on the experiences. TYI allow access to host of videos post the workshop, to understand the self behaviour. You will also be required to carry out an activity in line with understanding yourselves better, recognizing others and displaying the ability to adapt

Define Your Audience & Express Your Talent

Before your start crafting your personal brand, you need to determine your end goal based on your strengths and weakness and most importantly up-skill your talent within the progressive environment of experienced leaders and evidence your professional skills in an innovative way to express your confidence, high level of commitment toward your work-ethics and define your wide range of talents through TYI E-profile.

With the access to your personalised website, we help you connect with the industry experts to introduce you to Industry Basic Success Mantra & the access to The Yummy Idea Soft Skill Training module designed based on the method of 'Learning By Doing' and helping you to scale up table of interaction in your favour.

Market Yourself:

"I don't chase, I Attract, whatever belongs to me Finds Me!"

Get prepared for Industry Specific Interviews

Your first 2 minutes interaction with the potential employer defines your future with their company. Recruiters have limited time to understand your potential, we have to be smart to understand and read the interviewers mind. TYI makes you well prepared with mock-interviews, case studies, role plays and class room discussions and helps you with the real game of:

- Dealing with Logical reasoning
- Enhancing the critical and rational thinking
- Aligning the skill summary with job description
- And most importantly, making you self-aware toward the perception of recruiter, awareness about the important skills they are looking in an interview and allowing you to self-introspect for why you can be hired.

Prepare an Elevator Pitch

An elevator pitch (max 2 mins) is the most effective way to represent your personal brand with vision, passion and future prospects you will bring on table for them. It's a summary of all your academic learnings, experiences and skill set till date described in most easy and effective way of what you do and where you are going in your carrier and how you can create a value to their organisation.

All the above designed course helps you identify your strengths, your skill set, nurture effective communication during presentations and brainstorming with Industry leaders – helps you define a small story of your experiences and TYI team helps you define the right framework, with the right pitch based on your attributes.

Get Your Profile Proof read (replacing traditional CV with e-profile)

A well designed TYI E-portfolio allows students to:

- Showcase small snippets of hard work in the form of pictures and videos
- Log achievements at one place by logging digital certificates & other achievements
- Showcase the innovate side which they cannot speak in words as they can log any other co-curricular activities or projects they have taken up
- Increase their credibility (Testimonials by mentors)
- Authenticate learning as taking reviews of their modules learnt from mentors
- Reflect their dedication and commitment
- Evidence their passion to learn and understand every module
- Reflect their learning graph to recruiters

Grow your professional Circle, Networking and Your Credibility

As you are evolving your personal brand, it's also important to build your strong social network and grow your professional circle. TYI programme allows you to connect through Hospitality Industry leaders and connect with peers to share, communicate and innovate on a single platform.

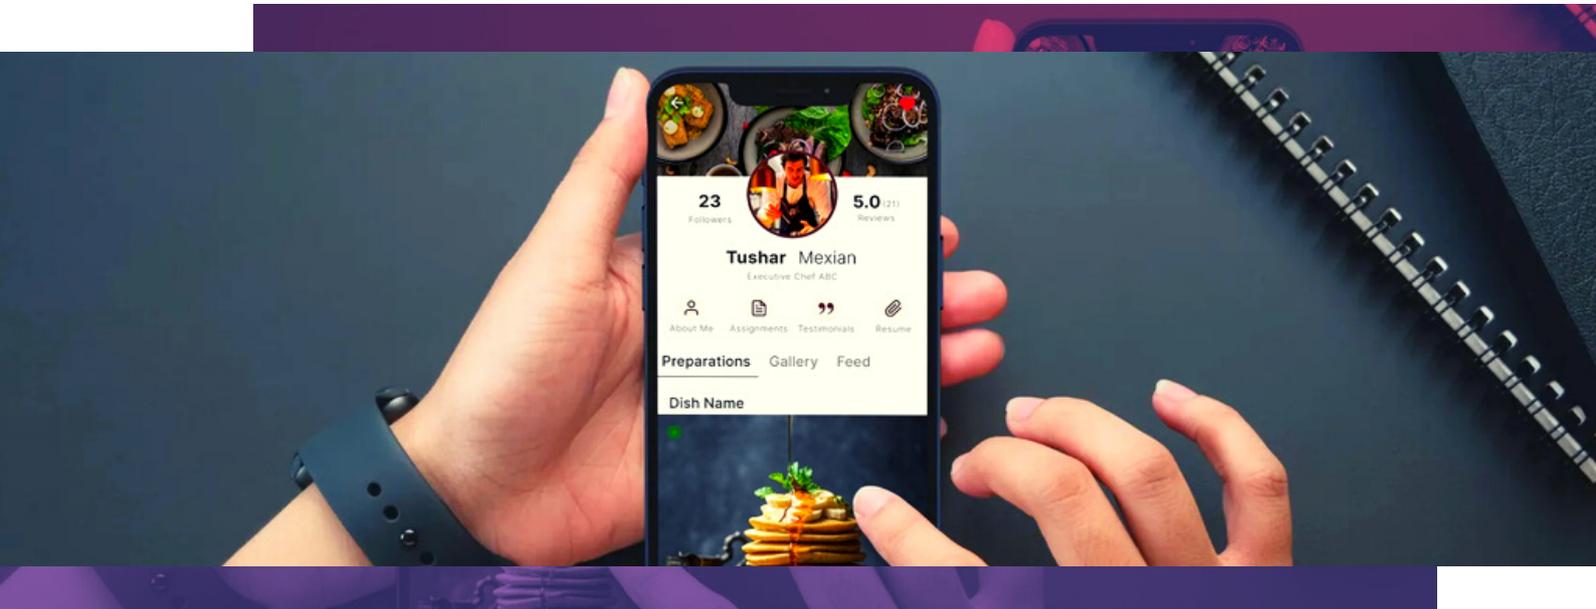

Regular events, competitions and industry meets keep you focussed on your professional development and provides an opportunity to interact and forge your strong relations with Industry leaders. Showcasing your brand and getting feedbacks and testimonials from known leaders allows unknown recruiters to make informed decisions about your potential and judge your leadership ability. The more connections you make, the more experience you gather and more likely your personal brand will be recognised.

- Industry awareness
- Business Entrepreneurship & leadership

A total 20 hours of rigorous training, assessment and introspection to help you focus on improvement in order to build your own employee brand.

Evidence your soft skills & get a personalised TYI Skill Matrix

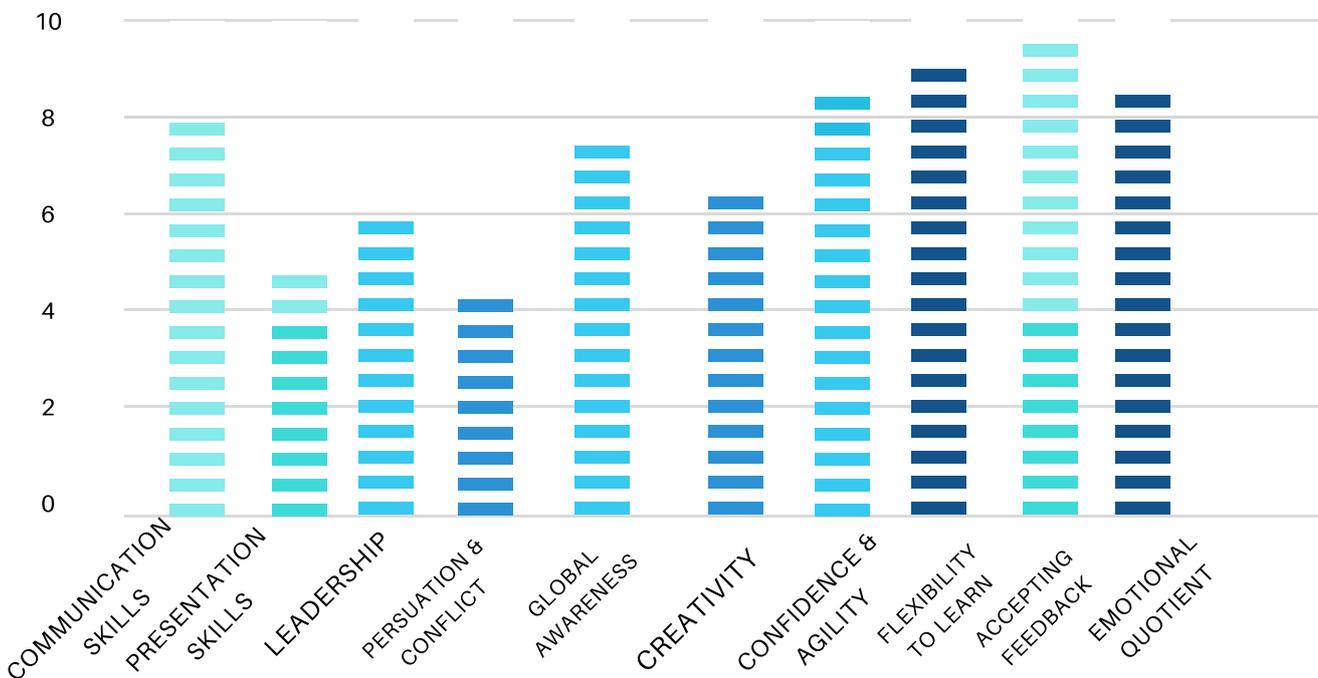

Skill Metrics will comprise various parameters on the basis of candidate's performance throughout the learning sessions. It is a tool that helps recruiters to assess the ability of a candidate to perform its duties.

The advantage of using and developing skill matrix is to make sure every student has a definite learning graph and TYI team will make sure, that based on actual capability of students' interaction during the sessions, based on their leadership ability to take up the challenges, and communication skills to represent themselves we will define the outcome of each candidate into definite results. This will not only help candidate to understand their level of improvement but also becomes a necessary tool for Recruiters to pick the best talent based on TYI-Skill matrix, which reflect the soft-skill development of an individual certified by the team of professionals, hence reducing the task of recruiter to search for perfect fit for their company.

4 WEEKS APPRENTICESHIP PROGRAMME

We need to offer students knowledge beyond theory and empower them with resourceful tools for practical application. We have partnered with the best in the industry to transform these candidates into excellent hospitality professionals that the organisations seek. Roseate Hotels & Resorts, a collection of uber luxury hotels across India and UK, being our training and guidance partner allows applicants to innovate not just in their professional careers but in the society at large. Hospitality being a dynamic industry, needs to be seen without any stereotype and biases which the brand endorses with live interactions, original case studies and on ground training thus making the subject more way of aligning business needs with the changing environment.

Each student will be given a choice to pick from any of the four departments:

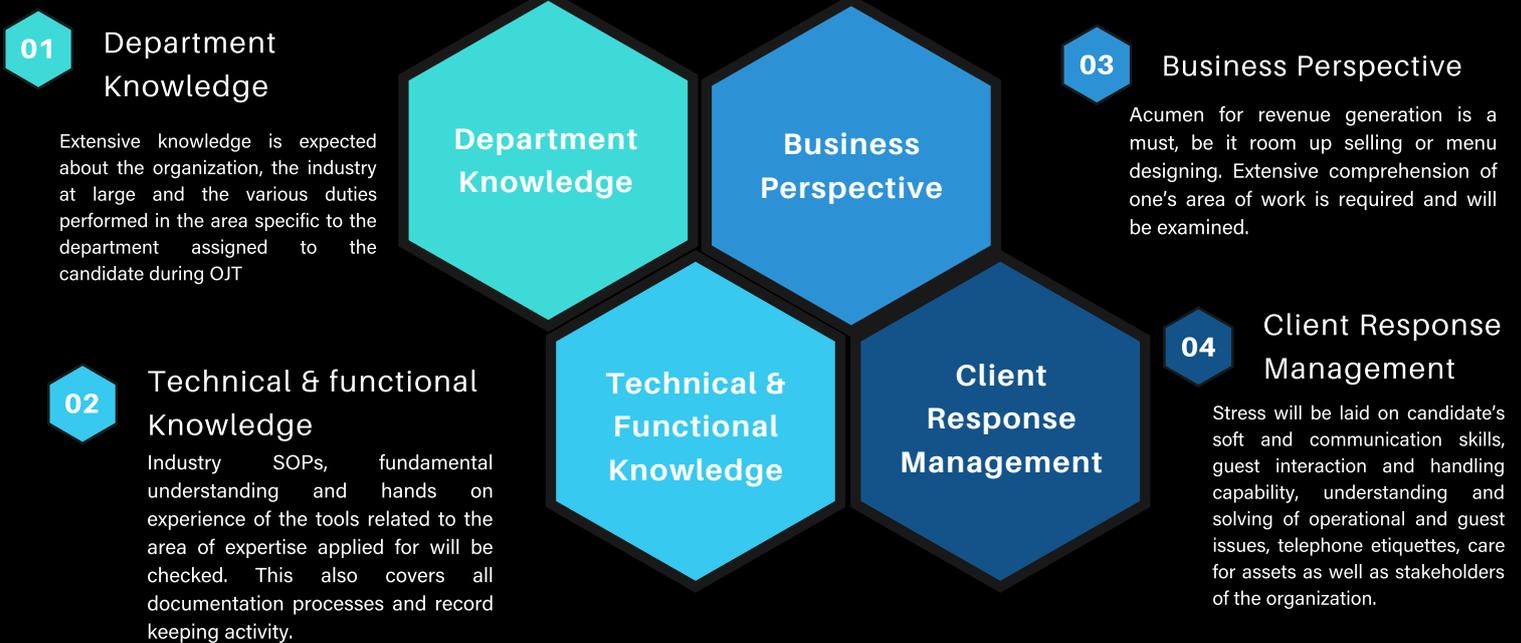

1. Food Production
2. Room Service
3. Front Desk
4. Food & Beverage

Based on their performance and acumen, candidates will be assigned various departments and given training modules covering 4 weeks that would include all the exercises & practices under the guidance of experienced trainers & mentors from Roseate Hotels & Resorts.
